Presider In the assurance of eternal life given at Baptism, let us proclaim our faith and sing,

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People (remain standing)

For our brother Basil, let us pray to our Lord Jesus Christ who said, "I am Resurrection and I am Life."

Leader Lord, you consoled Martha and Mary in their distress; draw near to us who mourn for Basil, and dry the tears of those who weep.

People
Hear us, Lord.

You wept at the grave of Lazarus, your friend; comfort us in our sorrow.
Hear us, Lord.

You raised the dead to life; give to our brother eternal life.
Hear us, Lord.

You promised paradise to the thief who repented; bring our brother to the joys of heaven.
Hear us, Lord.

Our brother was washed in Baptism and anointed with the Holy Spirit; give him fellowship with all your saints.
Hear us, Lord.

He was nourished with your Body and Blood; grant him a place at the table in your heavenly kingdom.
Hear us, Lord.

Comfort us in our sorrows at the death of our brother; let our faith be our consolation, and eternal life our hope.

Presider Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,
People where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Presider You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind; and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return." All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

People Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Prayer of Commendation

Presider Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Basil. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

At the Reception of the Body

The following form may be used at whatever time the body is brought to the church.

The Celebrant meets the body at the door and says

With faith in Jesus Christ, we receive the body of our Brother, Basil, for burial. Let us pray with confidence to God, the Giver of life, that he will raise him to perfection in the company of the saints.

If the Paschal Candle has not yet been lit, the Celebrant may do so, saying:

May Christ, who has called us out of darkness into his marvelous light, bring our Brother into that city which has need of neither sun nor moon, because the glory of God illuminates it and its light is the Lamb.

The Officiant circles the coffin, sprinkling the body with holy water, and may also do so censing the body.

All of us who have been baptized into Christ, were baptized into his death; For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Silence may be kept; after which a brief litany may be said before the Community is dismissed.

Lord, receive your servant into your dwelling place.

Lord have mercy.

Grant him rest in the kingdom of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Lord have mercy.

May he have a place among the blessed of your people Israel.

Lord have mercy.

May he share in the first resurrection and rise with all those who have been raised.

Lord have mercy.

May he rise with those who will rise on the day of the resurrection of the body.

Lord have mercy.

May he be presented with the blessed who will stand at the right hand of the Father.

Lord have mercy.

May he enjoy eternal life with all those who rejoice.

Lord have mercy.

Let us pray

Lord Jesus, we entrust to you your servant, our Brother, Basil. In your goodness you came into this world for him. Have mercy on him, Savior of the world. In your name may he pass from this ephemeral world and attain to eternal life and the joy of heaven, where you are alive and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Father of mercies and God of all consolation, you pursue us with untiring love and dispel the shadow of death with the bright light of dawn. Be our refuge and our strength, O Lord, and lift us from the depths of grief into the peace and light of your presence. Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, by dying has destroyed our death and by rising, has restored our life. Enable us therefore to press on toward him, so that when our earthly course is run, he may reunite us with those we love, when every tear will be wiped away. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Officiant may dismiss the Community, saying:

Let us go now in peace, keeping the memory of our deceased Brother in the Lord.
